Spread Holiday Cheer

Between the food, fun, and traditions, the holiday season is magical. It can be easy to get caught up in festivities and forget that it's also a good time to serve others. Ask an adult to help you spread some holiday cheer to those around you using the list of ideas below.

- Bake for your neighbors. Find your favorite cookie recipe, gather your ingredients, and bake a fresh batch. Then, arrange them on festive plates and deliver them to your neighbors.
- Give a gift. Whether it is through a giving tree or toy drive, consider purchasing an extra gift for a child in need while you are doing your shopping, and deliver it to a participating nonprofit organization.
- Make holiday cards. A "Happy Holidays" note or drawing can bring a smile to anyone's face. Share them with your teachers, friends, and neighbors.
- Donate your time. There are many ways you can serve others that may need a little extra assistance during the holidays. You could schedule time to visit with seniors or volunteer at a local food bank.
